Hammer Head Jigs for Sale

11/29/2020

The original Hammer Heads were sold with a collar for soft bait (Tail or Worm) is attached.

This is a great jig head because it swims and because of its design, does not get hung up like other jigs. You remember, when the top of the Hammer Head hits a twig, branch or a rock, the hook is pushed down.

When the bottom of the Hammer Head hits a twig, branch or a rock, the hook is pushed up.

I am a fly tier and like to tie my own flies for Trout, Pan fish, White bass, Bass, Walleye and others whether on a plain hook or a jig hook.

With my new spin caster I am able to offer you the original Hammer Head with a collar and Barbs or a Hammer Head without a collar for you fly tiers.

Hammer Heads without a collar.

- 1/8oz, hook size 1, 14 hooks per bag.
- 3/32oz, hook size 2, 16 hooks per bag.
- 1/16oz, hook size 2, 18 hooks per bag.
- 1/16oz, hook size 4, 18 hooks per bag.
- 1/32oz, hook size 4, 20 hooks per bag.
- 1/64oz, hook size 6, 20 hooks per bag.

If you are in the area and stop by to pick up your bags, you can save on the freight charge. If I have to mail out an order, the shipping cost will be added on to your order. So far, the freight cost has been less the $5.

This is a hobby for me, not a business. The $2.00 per bag covers my out of pocket cost. My goal or my objective is to get more people tying their own flies. Whether you're a fly fishing person or a bait casting person, tying your own flies to catch fish is fun.

Carl Thompson ties some great round head crappie jigs. Check him out on Face Book.

I sent him some Hammer Heads and yesterday on his live Face Book Channel, tied a jig using the Hammer Heads I sent him. Here is the link if you would like to see it.
