The Change

8/25/2020

Well, it is official. Ray Duncan, "Pappy Ray" will no longer pouring custom lead baits.

But not to worry! His long time friend, Floyd Williams has taken over that part of the business. He will soon have his shop open, but if you need something now, I have his business card.

It will be called Spring River Custom Baits, LLC. Floyd. Floyd has all the custom molds and equipment, so you do not have to worry, he will be glad to take your order and continue the work Pappy started 14 years ago.

Pappy will still be making custom baits painting them to meet the special design for each customer. Here is a couple of his crank baits.

I know that making tools, bending wires, spraying special colors or matching someone favorite plug that is worn out is something that will keep Pappy busy.

And know that Floyd will do well and wish him great success in the new business.

Floyd only lives a few miles from Pappy, and know that they will continue to support each other.

Good Luck to you both.
